

Together For Obama

On July 19, 2008, a group of American Egyptian Copts, as well as other Americans, who support Senator Barak Obama for US Presidency, has joined Steve Popper, Hunterdon County Executive for Obama Campaign 2008. Mr. Sherif Saad, an Egyptian Coptic leader had organized, and hosted a Backyard meeting for a grass root support volunteer. He, the host, welcomed all attendees and praises the diversity of the volunteers, White, Black, Christian, and Jews are at the same page together for America's better future. The meeting discussed the need to support Senator Obama, and his agenda for USA, domestically, and internationally. Mr. Popper said "Among the issues discussed were the importance of grassroots campaigning, revitalizing our cities, and restoring America's image in the international community by respecting human rights. These Obama supporters shared many inspirational stories and made commitments to volunteer in the near future."

American Coptic Union's President Rafique Iscandar, has participated in this great effort. We hope that this kind of activities should be followed by other Copts in the USA. Because, this election is very important for America we loved, and World.
